JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION GROUNDS, VA., October 6.—This week will be lively here; several State days are to be celebrated, among which will be New York Day, on Thursday. A feature of this celebration will be the presence of the famous Squadron A, New York National Guard, and a detachment of the New York Twelfth Regiment. These will accompany Governor Hughes as his escort.

From advice which have reached here New York Day promises to be one of the most notable yet celebrated at the tercentennial. Governor Hughes has asked for an appropriation of $20,000 to defray expenses incidental to the celebration, and he, together with his staff, a large party of State officers and other prominent officials are going to travel to and from the fair in "style."

Large Party Coming.
A special train of six coaches will leave Albany on the evening of October 5th and will arrive at Cape Charles the next morning, where the occupants will board a special boat to the Exposition grounds. President Tucker and staff will meet the party and escort them to the New York State Building.

That night an elaborate reception will be tendered Governor and Mrs. Hughes, the Governor's staff and the New York State Legislature. The reception will be held at the building of the Empire State.

The formal exercises of New York Day will be held in the Auditorium, beginning at 11 o'clock. There will be addresses by President Tucker, Governor Swanson, of Virginia, and Governor Hughes. From 1:30 to 2 o'clock Governor Hughes will hold a public reception in the rotunda of the Auditorium, and from 2 to 5 o'clock there will be an informal reception to invited guests at the New York State Building. At 4 o'clock there will be a parade and review of all the troops on the grounds, and from 8:00 to 11 o'clock a reception and banquet at the New York State Building. Admission to this function will be by card only.

Delaware Day.
Delaware Day will be observed at the exposition on Wednesday, October 9th. Governor Preston Lea, accompanied by a large delegation from his State, will attend the exercises, and an elaborate program for the event is being arranged. Governor Lea, Governor Swanson, of Virginia, Hon. James Pennington and Hon. H. St. George Tucker will be the speakers, and after the exercises in the Auditorium there will be a luncheon tendered the visitors. At 4 o'clock there will be a parade and review, and a reception by the Delaware State Commission at the Delaware Building, beginning at 7 o'clock.

Social Economy Day. The exhibitors, concessionaires and employees of the Social Economy Building have all combined to make the day one of great interest to visitors.

Other Special Events.
The National Board of the Mothers' Congress convenes at the exposition on Thursday for a business meeting, followed by a reception at the Mothers' Building in the afternoon.
The Chicago Press Club will visit the exposition on Tuesday, and will be quartered at the Inside Inn. The Jamestown Press Club members will be making elaborate preparations to entertain their brother writers from the West.

Indiana State Day will be observed on Friday, October 11, and it is expected that this will prove a gala event. The program is now in process of construction, and will be announced in a few days.

The Royal Arch Chapter Masons of Virginia are scheduled to meet at the exposition next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 8th, 9th and 10th. The National Funeral Directors' Convention will be held. The Daughters and Sons of the American Revolution meet on the 11th.

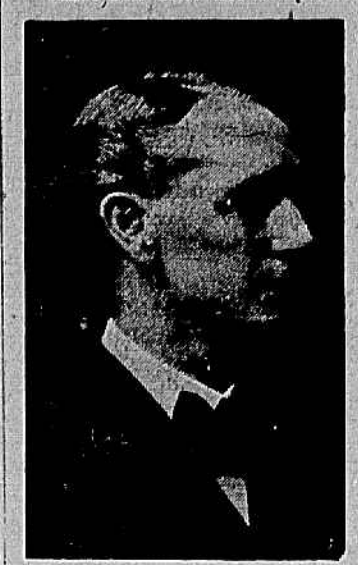

Altogether the week promises to be a very busy one at the Tercentennial.

Charlotte County Votes to Double Its Levy.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BUREKA MILLS, VA., October 6.—Mr. E. L. Bailey, youngest son of the late William H. Bailey, and Miss Rosa Marsten, daughter of E. L. Marsten, were married in North Carolina on last Wednesday.

A well attended meeting of the Board of Supervisors was held Monday, and much business of importance was transacted. In the settlement of the treasurer a balance of $2,935.59 was shown. A very important action of the board was the increasing of the millage levy to ten cents. It was formerly ten cents county and ten cents district tax. Now this tax is doubled. This action was taken on recommendation of the County School Board. The people will now expect better educational facilities.

GOOD WOMEN HAVE A FINE MEETING

Annual Session of Missionary of Roanoke Presbytery at South Boston.

GREAT INTEREST IN WORK

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
SOUTH BOSTON, VA., October 6.—The annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Union of Roanoke Presbytery, Synod of Virginia, was held in the Presbyterian Church at this place Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week.

On Wednesday evening there was a special musical program carried out by the children, under the direction of Mrs. J. S. Brookes, of this place, and also a reception was tendered the delegates.

An address was delivered by William Bull of Roanoke. His subject was along the line of missions, and was heartily enjoyed by all present.

Thursday morning's exercises were taken up in devotional exercises, roll call of societies, rally hymns, roll call of last meeting, reports of the secretary, treasurer, executive committee, secretary of literature, appointment of committees, reception of new societies, flash lights from their fields, corresponding secretary and address by Mrs. Gibson, of Chase City, which was of great interest.

The explanation of Synodical Union by Mrs. J. C. Stewart, of Richmond, on Thursday afternoon, was indeed a line, well handled and will no doubt do a great deal of good. It was a rare treat to hear her lectures. On Thursday evening the union and members of this and other denominations enjoyed an excellent musical by the Baptist, Presbyterian and Episcopal choirs, under the direction of the well-known musicians, Mrs. Lizzie Green, of this place, Rev. J. O. Reasick, of Richmond.
The meeting closed on Friday, which was uplifting, as well as interesting.

Friday morning's exercises consisted of the most distinguished citizens of delegates, minutes of preceding day, new or unfinished business, election of officers and another excellent address by Mrs. J. C. Stewart, of Richmond. The meeting came to a close on Friday afternoon with devotional exercises. An able address by Rev. Geo. E. Henderille, of Brazil, was expected, but he could not attend.

NOW WE MAY TALK WITHOUT WIRES

DeForest Makes Successful Test at Norfolk of His Wireless Telephone.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., October 6.—The wireless telephone, practically demonstrated, is here. Lee DeForest, the inventor of one of the two big wireless telephone systems, has been here for the past two or three days installing a wireless telephone station on the battleship Virginia at the Norfolk Navy yard, by means of which he has for two days spoken audibly to a receiver in the DeForest wireless station on top of the building in Norfolk, a distance of about two miles.
The voice of the inventor was heard in the Norfolk station equally as plainly as over the common telephone wire.

The distance between the two stations may be able to carry the human voice is yet uncertain, but it is not expected to supplant the ordinary telephone system, but to be used in cases where it is impossible to communicate by wire, but it is probable that it can be used for all purposes of communication between vessels in fleet formation, and to better advantage than can the wireless telegraph.

It is expected that the vessel in the Atlantic fleet will be equipped with the wireless telephone before the fleet sets out for the Pacific.

CASE OF RAKES BE TRIED NEXT

Second of the Men Charge With Conspiring to Murder Ann Hall.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, VA., October 6.—The trial of the Patrick county men, who are under indictment for the murder of Ann Hall, a young woman of that county, last March, will be resumed in the United States District Court here Monday morning.
The case of William E. Rakes, one of the five men charged with conspiracy and murder, is expected to be the next taken up, and he will have a preliminary hearing on Monday. Rakes, who was indicted for the murder of Ann Hall, was convicted of second degree murder and given six years in the Federal prison. He was also declared guilty of conspiracy to murder his wife, who is alleged to be living in the home of her father, who is alleged to be living in the home of her father, who is alleged to be living in the home of her father.

WANT THE SUIT DISMISSED.

Counsel for the Southern Contend That Declaration Was Improperly Filed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOYDTON, VA., October 6.—An interesting question will come up before the Circuit Court of Mecklenburg at its next regular term, beginning on the 21st day of this month. Mr. C. B. Allen, who lives in the West, has instituted suit here for $30,000 against the Southern Railway for injuries sustained by his wife in a railroad wreck in August of last year.

The attorneys for the Southern will ask the court to dismiss the suit upon the ground that the proceedings are irregular, that the law directs that the declaration must be filed within the month, but the plaintiff failed to file it on the regular rule days, which days are the first and third Mondays of the month, and therefore the defendants will ask that the proceedings be set aside and the case dismissed.

Both sides will be ably represented.

HENRY HAS PASSED THE CENTURY MARK

Gate City Negro, Said to Be 108 Years Old, Taken to the Poorhouse.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
GATE CITY, VA., October 6.—Manuel Henry, a negro, who has lived on the border of this county for many years, has been conveyed to the poorhouse. It is well authenticated that he is 108 years old. He is too feeble to walk without assistance, and is almost blind. He can hear quite well. The schools of Scott county will be closed all of next week, the school board having granted the teachers a week with pay for the time, in which to visit the Jamestown Exposition. The party of about 100 will leave here Tuesday morning. It is found to be quite difficult to supply the schools with teachers, and the board, considering this fact, in connection with the educational value of a visit to the exposition, decided it would be a wise move to grant the teachers this favor.

CROIS ARE VERY GOOD.

Farmers in Fine Spirits and Things Selling Well.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LAUREL, VA., October 6.—The crop is very good. Hay bales are busy. The crop, larger than for years, was saved in fine condition, as the season was dry and cool. Wheat seedling will be late, but increased amounts of high grade fertilizer will be used on an average acreage.

Sheep raising is on the decline. Recently the flocks of James Daniel and E. T. Brockman have been so damaged by dogs that the remnants have been sold for the markets. The cattle market is unimpaired.

Large hogs have been shipped to your market by R. V. Graves and to Northern markets by Daniel, Borton & Block. Buyers from the valley are here paying good prices for feeders and fresh cows. Three-month-old calves are bringing $10 and yearlings are about $15 per head. Hogs are as high as beefs.

Dr. Frank Dickinson, of Laurel, has his farm of 60 acres, with convenient buildings, to Ned Young this week for $2,500 cash. Dr. Dickinson goes to West Virginia to practice in the coming year.

Among the many new buildings recently erected in this section, that of George Fraser, built of cement is notable in equipments and attraction.

LOOKING FOR MAN WHO KILLED SAILOR

Norfolk Police and Men from St. Helena Searching for Slayer of Hastings.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., October 6.—Sailors from St. Helena, the United States training station opposite the Norfolk navy yard, assisted the local police all of last night and to-day in the search for the negro murderer of one of the number, Thomas Hastings, stated as a first-class baker, aboard the United States receiving ship Franklin. Some of the more excitable sailors at the station, it is said, had a rope over a limb and swore that they would lynch the negro if caught. The police, however, had disappeared to-day. The search for the slayer keeps up tonight, but the murderer is still at large.

Information received by the police to-day, led them to believe that Clinton Braxton, a violent and worthless negro, who has often appeared as a defendant in the Police Court, is the guilty man. They have been unable to locate him, but his wife, suspected of aiding him to escape, has been arrested and several witnesses have been locked up, although there was but one eyewitness to the assault.

Hastings and Lewis Wagner, a seaman, last night were sitting at a window in the second story of the house occupied by Hastings when some one threw a brick which struck the house near the window. Hastings went down to the street the negro sprang from a window and made a pass at him and immediately took flight. Hastings returned to the house and said to Wagner: "He has got me and got me good." It developed that Hastings had been stabbed in the left shoulder, the knife making a wound four or five inches long and as many inches deep.
